

Developed Land and the Urban Service Boundary Expansion

Land Coverage Change from Hay and Pasture to Developed Land from 2001 to 2019 on the East Side of Lexington

The urban area of Lexington is expanding. This map shows where land has already been developed from hay and pasture and compares to to the areas of land that are proposed for the expansion, which will cause more hay and pasture areas to turn into developed land.

